

Carolina Colonists' Costumes

(men)

F55
2:C8m
C.2

1663

1963

North Carolina State Library
Raleigh

The Carolina Colonists copied the high court dress in England and Europe. The coat which the boy is wearing is more representative of the century 1663-1763 than that of the man. The coat was as long as the breeches, usually having a matching waistcoat underneath.